

(Tentative) Announcement of the SIP*1-JPCI Joint International Seminar on Infrastructure Asset Management

Present and Future Road Infrastructure Maintenance in Myanmar and Japan

on 15th-16th March, 2017

Organized by

Ministry of Construction

Yangon Technological University

Japan International Cooperation Agency

Japan Prestressed
Concrete Institute

International Center for Urban Safety Engineering
(ICUS)

Hokkaido
University

Participation fee: Free!

Scope of seminar

Management of aged infrastructures has become essential all over the world. In this seminar, current damage situation of road and bridge structures and maintenance technologies in Japan are introduced. Some in-charge organizations in Myanmar also introduce their situations. By exchanging the information between Myanmar and Japan, present situation and future efficient maintenance practices for infrastructure management can be archived.

Venue

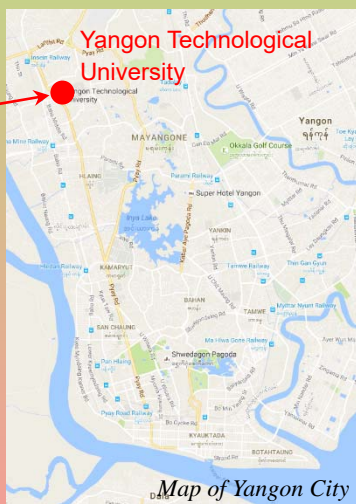

Assembly Hall, HRD Center Building, Yangon Technological University

HRD Center Building

Assembly hall (5th floor)

Map of Yangon City

Program

15th, morning: SIP seminar

9:00-9:15	Opening
9:15-9:45	Introduction of SIP project – Situations of infrastructure management in Japan and future prospects in Myanmar by Dr. Nagai (The University of Tokyo)
9:45-10:15	Current situations of infrastructure management in Myanmar by Ministry of Construction (MOC)
10:15-10:30	Break
10:30-11:00	Introduction of the JICA project by companies involved in the JICA project
11:00-12:00	Presentations from Japanese industrial field by Japanese companies
12:00-12:15	Closing

15th, afternoon: JPCI seminar

13:30-17:00	(Details will be announced soon.)
-------------	-----------------------------------

16th: Half day technical tour (optional)

Precast concrete factory of IHI Asia Pacific PTE. LTD.
(No. of participants will be around 20 persons in max.)

*1 SIP stands for Cross-ministerial Strategic Innovation Promotion Program, which is steered by Cabinet Office, Government of Japan.

For more information:

Mr. Hiroyuki OKAZAKI, Email: okazaki.hiroyuki@friends.jica.go.jp